
Why have I been given a fixed penalty notice?

Birmingham residents regularly say they want their streets to be free of litter. Every year the Council has to spend millions of pounds picking up litter that is just thrown on the floor. From cigarette ends to chip wrappers, it all costs money to clear up. Issuing fixed penalty notices is just one of the ways the Council

