

One proof of name and one proof of address from the list below will be required. You cannot use the same piece of identification for both name and address. For example, if you provide your driving licence as proof of your name you must provide another form of identification for your address, such as a utility bill.

Acceptable proof of name examples	Acceptable proof of address examples
Current signed passport Original birth certificate (UK birth certificate issued within 12 months of the date of birth in full form including those issued by UK authorities overseas) EEA member state identity card (which can also be used as evidence of address if it carries this) UK or EEA photo card driving licence Full old-style driving licence Photographic registration cards for self-employed individuals in the construction industry -CIS4 Benefit book or original notification letter from Benefits Agency Firearms or shotgun certificate Residence permit issued by the Home Office to EEA nationals National identity card bearing a photograph	