

Pledge to become a Slavery Free Community

As leaders in Birmingham we, the undersigned, commit to doing everything in our power to make our City free of modern slavery. We will work proactively with national and local government, law enforcement agencies, businesses, the voluntary and community sector, faith bodies and our local communities to:

-